

Attend the 2017 ADSBS Dorper Breeder Courses & Judges Training School

Stephen County Fair & Expo Center • Duncan, Oklahoma
Tuesday, April 18 through Friday, April 21, 2017

9:00 AM Start Each Day

Featuring Guest Instructors:

Theuns Botha and Ernest Connan
(both from South Africa)

The Dorper Breeder Courses are an intense 4 day program designed to assist those involved in Dorpers and White Dorpers to fully understand the breed standard, type scoring, and breeding decisions involved in raising these breeds. You must enroll in the Junior Course and complete it before you are eligible to take the Senior Course. Only Junior and Senior Course graduates or experienced sheep judges are eligible to participate in the Judges Training School. Approximately 200 head of Dorpers and White Dorpers will be on hand to use in the programs. Each Course concludes with an examination and the awarding of Certificates of Completion.

REGISTER FOR THE COURSES TODAY:

Complete the form below and submit to Ronda Seversen with fees.

HOTELS:

There are several good motels in Duncan, including Hampton Inn, Quality Inn, Days Inn and Holiday Inn Express, as well as numerous smaller motels.

Hotels are also available nearby in Lawton.

We suggest you make room reservations early for best rates.

2017 ADSBS Dorper Breeder Courses Registration Form

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

ADSBS Membership Name: _____

Dorper Breeder Courses _____ @ $40 per person

Junior Course Senior Course Judges' Training

Please also mail me a copy of the South African Handbook "Dorpers Into The New Century" (textbook) at special rate of $40 per copy.

Return this form and payment to ADSBS by March 15, 2017.

American Dorper Sheep Breeders Society

Ronda Seversen, Registrar
P.O.Box 259

Hallsville, MO 65255-0259

Tel: 573-696-2550 • Fax: 573-696-2030

www.dorper.org